

[illegible]

J. P. Montgomery, chief tax collector, was arrested yesterday. A large number of men were taken from Westport yesterday.

As it is published in THE OREGONIAN is a week or so ago, it is information that the chief tax collector last visit to this city was in September, 1883.

—The steamer Keweenaw arrived from Astoria yesterday and was run by the Wagon. The steamer is being run over by a wagon near the international hotel.

Members of the board of trade are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting of the board of trade tomorrow to meet between 10 and 11 o'clock. The board will address the board.

After melons and cantaloupes from the Dalles and large numbers of good quality. Cantaloupes and grapes arrived on the steamer from California yesterday in quantities.

The works of the Molten Cordage Company have been running night and day for the past few days. The fire in the cordage works has been extinguished and it is expected that the works will be made to go here some of these days.

An automobile whistling away has been heard at the light house station. Manzanilla one and another of the ladies west of the city were seen to get on board of the Panama, in twenty-five fathoms and away.

P. Wilhelm writes it stated that the manager of the City View park has had no talking out with the manager for Star Island. He has been told that nothing of their names for going to Vancouver will be published.

R. S. K. Pluck, grand patriarch of the grand old campment I. O. O. F. of Oregon, is in Astoria. He has been in the city for some time.

Rig had caught two floucs continue to show up, says the Ashterton. One was shown yesterday, and the other was shown today, comparing favorably in size, and in flavor, too, with the famous Delaware shad.

The Comptrolphas, which have been coming by eastern parties some time ago, will pass over the coast of the Pacific, and will be seen at Astoria, N. Weter, who has been in poor health, will be about that time for one of our summer residents.

Dr. A. M. Miller, who has been suffering from malaria since last autumn, has been able to leave his room and his physician's care, and is now able to go out upon him, which it is hoped may restore his complete health.

In the case of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, Judge Deady yesterday sustained an order of the court, which was made by the court, awarded the plaintiff judgment in the sum of $100,000 and interest.

Passengers who came up from Astoria yesterday report that a farmer named Rosenthal, formerly of Astoria, was killed by a train of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, which was passing over the bridge at the time. The train was passing over the bridge at the time, and the farmer was killed by a train of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, which was passing over the bridge at the time.

People who have been using water for the street in front of their residences, or who have been running on Duane lake all day, will do well to take the advice of the city fathers, and to stop running on Duane lake all day, and to stop running on Duane lake all day, and to stop running on Duane lake all day.

Isaac Vogel, the sleight of hand man, was over the city yesterday, and was very successful in his performance. He was very successful in his performance, and was very successful in his performance. He was very successful in his performance, and was very successful in his performance.

J. B. Pittman, late city editor of the Standard, has been arrested by the city fathers, and is now in the city jail. He was very successful in his performance, and was very successful in his performance.

Yesterday morning there were a light symptoms of a rain storm, but it did not rain. The weather was very warm. Last night the sky clouded up, and it rained a small amount of rain for a few minutes. There was quite a heavy shower of rain for a few minutes.

The information on which the item published yesterday concerning the excursion to Astoria on the historic Multnomah appears to have been obtained from parties who were supposed to be on the journey. Others say the trip was the idea of the Multnomah, which is one of the trimmest boats on the river and well adapted for every day use.

A private letter from Fort Klamath states that the Bishop of Astoria has a front settlement has been beaten. The bishop is a very good man, but a few days ago caught a trout weighing nearly eight pounds and Captain Poplar of the second company caught one weighing nearly ten pounds. They were landed without using a net or hook. The main reason for the first never being caught was they were in the wrong place. The trout in the western and northern part of the state remain the property of the people. Those in those districts at night to devour and de-

Owing to the presence of the above named persons, the W. R. County Auditor has been directed to withhold the sale of the above described property until the Oregon City assessor has been notified of the same. The assessor is directed to charter for expenses, immediately upon receipt of the above described property, and to return the same to the assessor by calling on their agent at his office at the north end of Alder street, in the city of Portland, Oregon.
 President W. R. County Auditor
 W. R. County Auditor, a new row, by Hawley Street, at the corner of Alder Street, in the city of Portland, Oregon.
 Harrison's Sewing Machine Store,
 No. 107 Third street, Portland, Or.

CITY NOTICES
 Frederick's Music Store.
 20 to Kolia's for organs.
 Walker's Real Estate, south and straight.
 Walker's Spring house. Geo. M. Packard, 107 Third street, Triad, Oregon.
 In connection, and paid under your business.

[illegible]

100

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

